QUEEN EMMA HOME TO HAVE FINE MUSEUM

Daughters of Hawaii Will Gather Collection of Island
Relics and Curios

A Hawaiian museum shortly will be made a feature of Hanaiaakamalama, the old home of the late Queen Emma, which has been completely renovated and placed in charge of a caretaker. This announcement was made during an interesting meeting of Daughters of Hawaii held in the old home yesterday.

The attractiveness of the old home has been added to by the donation of a fern house by Mrs. C. M. Cooke, the contents of which will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Wall. The members of the organization are planning to gather together as many articles of household furniture and ornaments of former all as possible and place them in the home. It is further planned to charge a small admission to view the collection.

In connection with yesterday's meeting Mrs. Emma Nakuna gave an interesting talk regarding how the present property came to the Daughters of Hawaii, and a brief history of the old home was read by Mrs. Emma A. D. Taylor.

PARK DEPARTMENT HAS ITS TROUBLES AFTER SUGAR CANE IS CUT

Twice a year the experiment station makes trouble for the park department. And when it does, it does a good job of it and makes plenty. At least that is what A. K. Vierra, superintendent of parks, says.

Cane is cut at the station twice a year. School children come for it, as it is given to whoever asks, and then run across the street to Makiki Park and sit down for the feast. Perhaps you can't eat much sugar cane, but you are not a sugar-hungry kiddie. The boys and girls who call for the cane can and do eat a lot of it. And they don't care what they do with the remnants. That is where Vierra's trouble comes in. They throw them all around the park. With many, many school children nibbling at big hunks of cane it does not take long to litter up the little park. Sugar cane is all about.

And then come the complaints. Before half an hour has gone by they begin to pour in. By nightfall the whole neighborhood is up in arms about the condition of the park. And Vierra knows about it. All his arrangements for the next day have to be changed and a gang rushed down there to clean up the park.

The cane was cut last month, according to the park department's March report, just filed with the board of supervisors, and Vierra's troubles are over for another six months.

CHANGE OF SCHOOL SITE WILL ADD CONVENIENCE TO HOMESTEADERS' CHILDREN

Exchange of a school lot on the beach near the homestead lands about a mile out of Waimea for a lot owned by Theodore Baumann situated in the heart of the homestead district will probably be made at the next meeting of the land board. The exchange was authorized in 1911 but has hung fire ever since.

The department of public instruction has $2000 appropriated by the last legislature for a school building on the lot available and Bertam G. Rivenburgh, land commissioner, made a trip of inspection to the district Wednesday. He found that the homestead lots are all on the top of a high bluff, while the school lot is on the beach about two and a half miles distant by road, but considerably shorter as the crow flies. On a map it appears as if the school property is an advantageous site, but on the ground it appears differently.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If Cross, Feverish or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.
